Neshama: Association of Jewish Chaplains

Conference 2018

Doing G!d's Work with Our Own Hands

Faces of Hope 70 פנים לתקוה

Facing the Sources of Hope in Our Lives: Finding and Sharing Hope

January 14-17, 2018
Orlando, Florida

Sunday:

- Pre-Conf. Programs
- Conference Begins! (early afternoon)
- Opening Dinner
- Keynote Speaker: Rabbi Jonathan K. Crane, PhD. Raymond F. Schinazi Scholar in Bioethics and Jewish Thought; Associate Professor of Medicine; Associate Professor of Religion, Center for Ethics; Emory University

Monday:

- Keynote Speaker: Dr. Ben Corn (aka Dr. Hope) Chair of Radiation Oncology, Sha'arei Tzedek Hospital, Jerusalem; Founder of the Israeli NGO Life's Door
- NAJC Experts' Workshops
- Honoree Dinner: Recognizing Dvora & Dr. Ben Corn

Tuesday:

- Keynote Speaker: Rabbi Paul Steinberg, author of Recovery, the 12 Steps and Jewish Spirituality, formerly Educator and Spiritual Advisor for Beit Teshuvah in LA
- NAJC Experts' Workshops
- NAJC Kinzbrunner Award Dinner

Wednesday:

- Keynote Speaker: Rabbi E.B. (Bunny) Friedman, Founding Director of Jewish Hospice & Chaplaincy Network.
- Keynote Speaker
- NAJC Experts' Workshops
- Certification Panels
- Field Trips
- Conference Ends (after lunch)

To Register:

Hotel Registration: Rosen Plaza Hotel, 800-627-8258

(limited # of rooms at conference rate available. Ask for NAJC rate!)

To Register For The Conference: go to www.najc.org

Join your friends and colleagues for days of professional education, chevruta learning, spiritual worship, and much more!